Memories

I asked family and friends to tell me what they remember the most about (name). There are so many good memories _____, _____, _____, _____ (list 4 to 5 memories in short sentence form; examples – playing music together, fishing at Lake Tahoe, his/her big hearty laugh, the time we went to Rome and he/she for lost.)

One that I remember in particular is the time when _____ (tell a longer story that illustrates your loved one's personality – this can be a heart-warming story or a funny story).

Wrapping Up

(Name) was a remarkably _____ (an adjective; examples –kind, caring, reliable, high-spirited) person. He/She was a person of great _____ and _____ (two words that describe the person's character; examples - compassion, faith, devotion, integrity, love, wit).

Above it all, _____ (name), believed in _____ (the person's most important value; examples – faith, love, family). He/She always said " _____ " (a common saying that illustrates the person's highest value; example – family is the most important thing in life, life is short so enjoy everyday).

Those are words of wisdom that I will always cherish.

In closing, I would like to share (religious verse, poem, healing quotes)

(Example)

When I come to the end of the day,
And the sun has set for me.
I want no rits in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once share -
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone.

It's all part of the marker's plan,

A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart

Go to the friends we know.

And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds – Miss me but let me go.
