“ I would do anything to hear my mama voice one more time . Just one more time . I been sitting by the phone since October waiting to hear my mama voice . I will never be the same . A piece of me died when she did . And I just really wish the people that really didn't care about my mama would let her Rest In Peace . She had so many rough years in her life and all she wanted was love . My mama was the picture of love . She was kind and sweet . Although she suffered from other things . She will and always forever be the Queen of my heart and I will never be the same . Yes I said that again .

“ My beautiful niece Donnetta Rochelle Lewis Slaughter. When I named you Donnetta I wanted your initials the same as mine. I will always keep you in my heart in that special spot only you holds. You are with our father God now where you belong. I will always cherish the memories of how you helped me turn my life around. Those soft kind words I can still here them when I think back on my life. You didn't judge me you loved me and helped me see that there is a light at the end of the tunnel but sometimes it just takes a little longer for some of us to see it. My beautiful sweet spirited Donnetta Rochelle rest now you have run your race home to God our father. That's what makes my heart glad. Yours worries are over praise God. Rest In Peace my Beauty In Jesus Name. You will be missed.
