

Estella M. Arevalo

April 17, 1938 - June 18, 2020

Estella Arevalo was born in Piedras Negras, Coahuila on April 17, 1938. She spent most of her life in both Illinois and Texas. Our Heavenly Father called her home to eternal rest on June 18, 2020. She will be joining her late beloved husband, Raul Arevalo.

She is survived by her children, Jessie (Melinda) and Elsa Arevalo, and her siblings. She was a loving grandmother to Alix, Audrey, Abbey, Athena, Matthew, and Lauren. She was loved by many and touched countless lives. Estella was a faithful servant of Christ. The following verse, a favorite of hers, is indicative of how she lived her life.

For to me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain. Phil. 1:21

Porque para mi el vivir es Cristo y el morir es ganancia. Fil. 1:21

“ Una reina siempre aqui en la tierra, y arriba en el cielo con Diosito. Nunca me olvidare cuanto nos quizo solo por ser amigas de sus nietas, ni tampoco su cabello de plata que brilla en el sol. Un abrazo grandotote a las chicas Arevalo/Odwuor y al resto de la familia. Las quiero mucho, y yo se que esta escuchando las canciones de Chente en el cielo y mandandoles muchas bendiciones. Muchisimos besos y abrasos.

“ Agradecemos la oportunidad que nos brindaron de acompañarla a la distancia al no poder hacerlo físicamente.

Comparto su dolor en esta muy triste pérdida. Sus enseñanzas y legado queda en ustedes sus hijos y nietos. Que Dios de fortaleza a sus corazones. Que descanse en paz mi hermana Estelita.

“ Mami you are the wind beneath my wings - then , now, and forever. You taught me what love is and how precious life is. You were a lady and a warrior all in one. You are the perfect example of the woman I hope one day to become. God is giving me strength I never could fathom. It's such a privilege to call you my mother. We laughed and we cried but most of all we lived. I love you forever until we meet again. Te quiero Mami.

“ Queridos primos Arevalos. La distancia y el tiempo parecen alejarnos pero las memorias las traemos en el corazon. Recuerdo de mi tia su gentileza y cariño para conmigo siempre. Recuerdo con agrado su risa y que me gustaba decirle algo para hacerla reir, solo para para escucharla. Tia querida, ya te vere otra vez para hacerte reir de nuevo en el cielo. Primos y sobrinos, un abrazo afectuoso de su primo y tio. Pepe.

“ I couldn't help but notice how bright the sun shone yesterday. I know for a fact that it was you Gueli sending light and love down to us, only as bright and warm as you could. May the peace that passeth all understanding forever be with you and with us until we meet again. Thank you for loving me and Kyani in a way only you could. You always have been and always will be so very much special to me and the entire family. May God bless your soul and keep you. Te amo mucho abuelita.

“ Dear tía Estelita: I treasure very fond memories of you in my heart. Pure happy times when we got together for dinner at your home, or at our apartment to watch a movie and spend the afternoon, laughing all the time. My love goes to you Jesse and Elsie and all your family, knowing that we will see tía Estelita one day in heaven. God bless you guys. Your cousin Maria Elisa Guerrero.

“ I can not say and will not say that she is gone, she is just away, with a cheery smile and a wave of hand, she has wandered into an unknown land, think of her the same way, she is just away. I will always treasure in my heart all the sweet memories growing up with her around us and teaching us Sunday bible school when we were kids, May God give my cousins, nieces and nephew the strength to grieve her departure

“ A bright light has faded this 18th day of June 2020 year of our Lord.

It was in 1994 when i met you and what a gentle soul you were. Not long after that, we were blessed with 3 beautiful souls, your granddaughters Audrey, Abigail and Athena, whom you embraced with the same warmth you embraced me with and you continued to be a big impact in their lives.

Even though you've left us, you will always have a spot in my heart and my fond memories of you will forever shine.

Fly among the angels and rest in peace until we meet again. Love always, George.

“ Today's date, June 16th, 2020, officially has a different meaning to me, today heaven gained an angel that will forever continue to watch over her family. There is so much i could say, but i'm still trying to figure out exactly how to go about this, but what i do know is there is no one else in the world who was able to make me smile like she could when she would say "I love you" in spanish. She was an amazing grandmother to me that taught me so much of my culture and i can't thank her enough, she will forever be in my heart.
