“ Well brother you will forever be in my heart. You lived life on your terms. You were selfless kind loving to everyone you came across. You would give anyone the shirt off your back or your last dollar just to see a child smile. Jeffrey you are proof that we don't know what is going to happen tomorrow and we must love those around us because today is a gift and tomorrow isn't promised. I love you Jeff rest easy. We got this from here. Until we meet again brother

“ You are well loved and in this life, that is the best thing we can ask for. It is within our power to make a positive impact on our family, friends and all the world around us. You obviously did make an impact and it is sad that your life has been cut short.

You were brave to grab the steering wheel and try to avoid that accident. It is tragic that that act of bravery took your life . You should have had the chance to live to a ripe old age and I am so sorry that won't happen. You will join your parents in heaven and will be remembered as a hero who tried to avoid a disaster.

God bless those you leave behind who will mourn your passing. May your family and friends know that you are at peace and in no pain.

May we all remember to wear our seat belts and to drive defensively. Life is short enough but this brings into focus that our lives can change in just a second. We should tell those we love how we feel. We should forgive those who have wronged us and be at peace. Be grateful for what we have and who is in our life. And... most importantly we should be thankful to our Father for his blessings.

All our love and prayers for your eternal soul and for your family and friends.

“ You was a true friend to me I wish we could have spent more time together. You are the only person I ever met that had two middle names like I do. I remember the night we sat and talked about it and how it we hated it. I'm gonna miss you. I'll forever cherish the time we did hang out. I know your happy up there with your parents. Until we meet again brother fly high and watch over us all. Love you man

“ You were taken to soon from us.. you had so much to give to this world. All of us are asking why... But we are comforted by the thought that you are in Heaven looking down on us. Keep an eye on us and be the light some of us need to follow. I will miss you so much. Rest easy my friend

. Until we meet again

“ Jeffrey, you are a true friend. No matter how crappy you felt about your own situation, you still encouraged others. I am going to miss our morning coffee together and keeping you stocked with sugar so you could use a 1/4 cup of coffee with your 3/4 cup of sugar. I can't wait to see you again and you better be waiting at the gate for me when that time comes.

I love you bro!
