“ Terry became a friend through work. He was always fun to be around and made everyone laugh. He was genuine, kind hearted, and truly cared about people. I will miss laughing with him, and complaining about all the little things together. Rest in heaven big Terry, til we see you again!

“ It has been said that Terry was one of a kind. It’s true, he was unique. I have known and worked with Terry nearly 20 years. He started as a mentor and turned to friend. I will miss his laugh, his way with words, his laid back attitude, so many things, but I will especially miss our conversations. We talked about work, life, and anything that was on our minds. Terry could come across as intimidating and gruff, but he had the biggest heart. He loved and family and enjoyed his friends. Heaven just gained a cool cat just chilling to his jazz. Hope your dancing with those wings. RIP my friend, you will be missed.

“ On behalf of the Baylor University Medical Center operating room staff and leadership, we’d like to send condolences to Terry Eason’s family. Terry was a great nurse who took wonderful care of his patients and mentored many OR nurses during his career. While he will be greatly missed by his Baylor family, he will also be remembered with love by a whole generation of OR nurses. May his legacy comfort you in this time of grief.

“ For years, before I permanently moved to weekends, we would sit on a bench or gaze out a window laughing, fussing, and cussing about work and life! We all thought he'd retire and travel for a while...but God had a special destination for him! Rest in His arms, Terry!

“ Terry, was a very cherished and dear friend to me. He helped mold me when I finished my ADN. He would tease me frequently for being nerdy and having OCD. Which are both kinda true. He was intelligent and funny all at the same time. Two of Terry's sayings when someone was hasseling him to move faster or get something that was not emergent was "I don't work for you, I work for Baylor," and another saying that Terry would say to new nurses is " I have forgotten more than you will ever learn." He told me both sayings when I was 30 yrs. old, and they both are very true. Terry was often misunderstood due to his height and deep voice, but he was gentle caring human being. My heart is heavy and my eyes teary to know that he's gone. Even though I dont won't to, bye my friend, colleague and fellow Cancerian. Please save me a seat, because I know you are in heaven. Love you, Rest in Peace.

“ Terry was my very good friend and work partner. I would look forwards to my day because I knew terry was there to make me laugh. I loved his honesty, and his passion for his work. I know in my head he is in a better place, but my heart just can't seem to understand why he had to go! I'm sending my prayers out to his children and grandchildren. Rest assure that your dad was loved by all.

“ Great Friend and colleague. He was always cool and collected. Knew I could get input from him that it was genuine, to the point, and objective. He will be missed! I think half the OR had him as a preceptor and we are all stronger for it!

“ A consummate professional. An honor to have worked alongside him for many years. This is a huge loss of Baylor, the patients, and all of Terry's co-workers. RIP Big Terry.

“ I remember having him as a preceptor as an intern. At the time there were a lot of intimidating nurses on day shift and Terry took me under his wing. He was kind, funny, and a great teacher. I used to try and race him to see if I could find the supplies the Surgeon asked for before he got it, as Terry didn't move as fast... and I was learning! For the next 4 1/2 years he came to be a dear friend to me. He shared his wisdom as I went through some of the hardest times of my life. We shared laughs. Rolled our eyes and giggled about the chaos of work. Terry may have been rough around the edges, but his heart was gold. Baylor will never be the same and he will be so very missed.

Macy - September 11 at 08:58 AM

“ I remember having him as a preceptor and I was terrified of him. But as I got to know him I realized that his rough exterior was very thin and he had a heart of gold. He was such a wonderful man. I will miss him greatly. I miss his laugh and his big smile.

“ February 2015: Terry was my partner in joint pain. After I had foot surgery, Terry took my scooter for a spin up and down the hallway in the Roberts bldg. That truly was the fastest I've ever seen him move.....
