“ Ro,I remember when you met Willie,that was your joy. You had a glow that shined everywhere. We said after we finished nursing school we would marry good men and we did. I will be praying for you And the kids. Next time I'm in Dallas I will come by for a visit. God doesn't put nothing on us that we can't bare. I love you. Call me anytime Just remember this battle is not yours it's the Lord's

“ I'm still in disbelief that we are all writing our memories or RIH to you, but I guess God had other plans for you! I will never forget meeting you and the time you came into Ro' s life. You have her life and plenty of laughs watching kids play football. You will be forever loved and missed and always in our hearts and memories!! Glad I got the chance to meet you. One love

“ There is pretty much a consensus that you were life of the party. You came to my birthday party with Jovanna and AT and from that day on I thought of you as family. Thank you for leaving behind many footprints of love, happiness, commitment, understanding and sacrifice. You will be missed cuzzin.... RIH

“ Nothing but happy memories, you were great, an awesome fam, friend and that I will never forget. I'm glad I was able to give your flowers while you lived. You exhibited the persona of a man, a God fearing man, when trials and tribulations came you knew to call on God, I remember us (you, mama(patryce) and I at the underground conference with Dr. Bynum.. I know if there was a need to be met if you had it, it was going to be taken care of. Nothing could have ever prepared our hearts to say see you later, but I know truly God has a plan and he has a clock on each of us and Chili you served your purpose and the clock said on the 18th of March that it was time to go home. God is getting glory for your life. Though our hurts are hearting, it's comforting in knowing that you are at peace. I LOVE YOU ALWAYS

“ I really dont know where to begin. We had so many memories from '96 on up. You are one of the coolest people that i have could ever call a good friend. Things will never be the same without you. The Lord has called another good man home. Ramona, i may not know you but you have my deepest condolences and you ever need anything, just call us.

“ Ramona you & the kids are in my prayers. I can't begin to understand what you are going thru but if at anytime you need something please don't hesitate to reach out.

“ I met you March 12, 2012 I met the man who would become the love of my life. You took me on a journey that neither of us was aware of we were ready but we did it together. June 12, 2015 we married and it's been everything we imagine and more from that point. We taught each other how to love in abundance, we took care of each other and the children together. You joked, laughed, fussed, and everything but nothing could compare to your love, compassion, and understanding that you had. You were the voice of reason for whomever you loved. You were a family man when I met you. Everyone knew they could call you for whatever and you would be there. You will forever love and live in me and the children hearts. I will wear this last name with pride because without you I wouldn't be here as Mrs. Thomas. Rest In Heaven and in Love baby and save me a space beside my King

“ Hey this is pooh how are you sorry I could not reach out to you but you and the kids are in my heart, I am so hurt right now, I can't sleep are eat but I know God has my cousin now, but it still hurts so bad, but I love you, and remember God is on control,

Laquinta - March 24, 2017 at 11:53 AM

“ I will always love you cousins, this is very hard, but I know God in Jesus name does every thing for reason, you will truly be missed, but never, and i do mean never forgotten, love you and RIL

Laquinta - March 24, 2017 at 12:21 AM

“ Willie you will be very missed we have had some good times this is so in real. God has a special man coming up to the heavens gate. We love you chili bowl!!

“ It is so hard to believe that you're gone. Our hearts are truly hurting. No longer will we have your kind heart that was always willing to help anyone that you could. Your joking playfulness, You were a great man with a huge heart that loved his family. It was a honor having to have you apart of my life not only as a friend but my family. Wear your wings proudly nephew your really did earn them Rest in Heaven now Chilli.

Regina Davis - March 23, 2017 at 08:46 PM

“ There are too many memories to just pick one. We had such a good time growing up in the same household throwing jabs at each other and just being. I'm going to miss you nephew. You were the one I called on to talk to or rant too. I loved being your aunt/sister and I know without a doubt that you knew how much I loved you. I would do anything for you even ride around in the "Loner" getting tickets because we were so illegal in that car LOL! I'm going to miss the messed up deejaying, your laughter and just everything about you. Its hard to accept that you are gone and I don't want to say goodbye. Not now, not ever. I'll never forget you and will carry you in my heart forever, until we meet again.

Love,

Aunt Lesley
